Brown Smith Wallace has created a separate affiliate company for its medical billing services, the CPA and consulting firm said Thursday.

The subsidiary, called BSW Medical Billing Services, will offer comprehensive medical billing services to physicians and other medical professionals. BSW Medical Billing Services will serve offices ranging in size from one to 25 professionals.

The BSW Medical Billing Services will operate out of Brown Smith Wallace's St. Charles location and will be led by Frank Megargel, a partner in the firm.
