Frank is a Member in the St. Charles office of Brown Smith Wallace. He joined Brown Smith Wallace through the merger of his previous firm, Megargel Willbrand & Company in 2002. He had practiced in his own firm for more than 25 years and with a national CPA firm prior to that.

All told, Frank has more than 35 years of experience serving St. Charles and St. Louis businesses. His personalized approach and broad business knowledge have yielded many referrals from satisfied clients and other professionals. Frank concentrates his practice on tax planning and consulting for closely held businesses and individuals. His business practice spans all industries, with an emphasis on:

- Not-for-profit
- Medical/healthcare
- Professional services
- Retail

A St. Charles native, Frank is active in the community as an Advisory Bank Board Member for Reliance Bank, St. Charles Regional Catholic Family Services Advisory Board, and past treasurer of St. Charles Lewis & Clark Bicentennial Foundation. In addition, he is a past adjunct professor at Lindenwood University.

Frank is a graduate of the University of Missouri-St. Louis and has served as honorary co-chairman of UMSL's Red & Gold Club. He is a member of both the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants and the Missouri Society of Certified Public Accountants.
