

Property Tax Services

Property taxes are one of the largest recurring operating expenses associated with owning tangible assets. Business owners are often unaware of what items or costs are taxable, what items are being assessed or how their property is being valued. Understanding these issues can often produce a property tax savings.

The Brown Smith Wallace property tax team uses a proven, multi-step assessment process to uncover savings for your organization. Our clients typically experience annual tax savings, reduced costs, improved cash flow, a cleansed fixed asset record and mitigated jurisdictional issues.
