Robin is a Member in Brown Smith Wallace's Tax Services group. She has more than 20 years of accounting, auditing and tax experience and is a key member of the firm's Management Committee.

Robin works with a wide variety of privately-owned businesses, primarily in real estate and construction. As a trusted business advisor, she teaches her clients how to operate efficiently and gain an edge on their competition. Robin is known for her tax knowledge and advice, ensuring that her clients pay no more taxes than the law requires.

A 1984 graduate of the University of Tennessee, Robin holds a Bachelor of Science degree in Criminal Justice and a minor in Accounting. She is a member of both the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants and the Missouri Society of Certified Public Accountants.

Robin was recently honored by the MSCPAs as a 2008 CPA Woman-to-Watch, receiving the Experienced Leader award. She is an active member of the University of Tennessee Alumnae Association. She also enjoys community service, volunteering for the Visual and Performing Arts by assisting artists with accounting issues and tax compliance.
