Lincoln is a Principal in the Audit Services practice, with more than eight years of experience in public accounting.

At Brown Smith Wallace, he is responsible for various in-charge and oversight functions during accounting and audit engagements. Lincoln has a broad range of auditing experience in the following industries:

- Employee benefit plans
- Construction
- Distribution
- Retail
- Manufacturing
- Not-for-profit
- Securities Broker-Dealers

Lincoln's approach to client service allows for solidification of mutually respectful relationships with clients, ultimately increasing efficiency on both sides of the desk. As a part of his commitment to his clients, Lincoln prides himself in providing excellent service in many areas including audit, financial statement analysis and presentation, financial reporting and internal audit.

Lincoln has consistently increased his responsibilities within the firm and often provides staff training and technical support due to his exposure to numerous software programs. He has led the firm's implementation of the New Audit Risk Standards, including the development of our client communication and education piece. He has also developed a niche in the Broker Dealer arena by staying atop the ever-changing regulatory requirements and serving as an expert advisor to our clients.

Lincoln earned a Bachelor of Science degree in accountancy from Southeast Missouri State University.
