

The Difference Is...

Darla K. Hemmann, CPA Manager, Tax Services

314.983.1203
dhemmann@bswllc.com

Darla is a Manager in Brown Smith Wallace's Tax Services group and has more than sixteen years of public accounting experience. Her areas of concentration include rental real estate, family wealth, manufacturing, distribution and other professional service industries.

In addition to her work in individual, business, and not-for-profit taxation, Darla is responsible for supervising and reviewing tax engagements. She also trains and evaluates tax staff. She conducts the annual tax season training.

A tax planning specialist, Darla keeps abreast of changes in tax law through a variety of continuing education courses and seminars. She enjoys assisting clients in minimizing their tax obligations and maximizing their assets.

Darla has worked with:

- Small businesses
- Consolidated corporations
- Individuals
- Partnerships
- Trusts
- Not-for-profit organizations

She is a licensed certified public accountant and a member of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants.

She graduated cum laude with a Bachelor of Science in Business Administration (BSBA) degree in Accounting from Southeast Missouri State University.