

The Difference Is...

Mark A. Leverenz, CPA/ABV, CVA Director, Financial Advisory Services

314.983.1285
mleverenz@bswllc.com

Mark is a Director with Brown Smith Wallace Financial Advisory Services group. A securities industry expert, he specializes in litigation support as well as business valuation. Mark applies technical, planning and problem-solving skills to help his clients achieve their goals and improve productivity, service and profitability.

Prior to joining the Brown Smith Wallace Financial Advisory Services Group, Mark was a principal with Edward Jones, where he developed and implemented procedures as custodian for self-directed retirement accounts. He also played a key role in the company's intranet development. Mark also has served as a controller in industry and as a tax accountant for an international CPA firm.

In addition to his CPA certification, Mark is a Certified Valuation Analyst (CVA), has attained the AICPA's Accredited in Business Valuation (ABV) credential and holds the following securities licenses *:

- Series 7 -- Registered Representative
- Series 24 -- General Securities Principal
- Series 27 -- Financial Operations Principal
- Series 63 -- Uniform State Securities Agent

Mark earned his Bachelor of Business Administration degree in accounting from University of Missouri and his Master of Accounting from St. Louis University. He is a member of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants, the National Association of Certified Valuation Analysts and the Missouri Society of Certified Public Accountants.

* Licenses held/securities offered through NFP Securities, Inc., a Broker/Dealer and Member NASD/SIPC