Kick-Start 2015
Three Networking Strategies for Your Year
>>from Hillary Sale

Strategy #1
Get out and build your network at events; be sure to walk away with a connection beyond "What do you do?"

Strategy #2:
Make a list. Ask yourself who are the people and mentors I haven’t seen in a while that I want to/should reconnect with?

Strategy #3:
Pick someone out of your reach you would like to meet, and figure out why? Why should they want to meet you?

A Favor for Hillary:
Pay it forward by connecting a woman you know to someone they should know. Be a connector. Be The Bridge.
